A FRIENDLY WORD FOR SPARKS

An Interview with Senator Dolph—The Silver Question Threatening the Administration—Simplicity Takes a Back Seat

A GOOD WORD FOR SPARKS

WASHINGTON, June 1.—[Special.]—Land Commissioner Sparks, speaking of the work of his office, says: "The public domain is looked upon as the legitimate prey of land thieves, railroad rings, corporate rings and sharks of all kinds. The territory that is looked after by this office extends from Key West to Behring straits, and the difficulties of communication and [illegible] of business cannot be overstated. Since I have been in office I have hardly taken a step, but I have not found something wrong. I have already detected and stopped some grand land steals. One was by the Northern Pacific railroad. That corporation was smuggling through a change of boundary line, by which the government was to lose 124,000 acres of excellent land. I revoked the order and prevented the steal."

Commissioner Sparks has issued an order suspending final action in the general land office, and by this means he has got operations down to a basis by which fraudulent claims will be detected and cancelled and honest claims given to honest settlers. In a word, if properly backed up and carried out, his plan will save the lands for homes of honest settlers. This plan has already met with the violent opposition of all the ricksters and land sharks in the country. They are howling over it because it breaks up their business, but it saves the public domain for men who propose to go upon and honestly settle and cultivate it. The land system under the present auspices is showing wonderful signs of brightening up, and the work already accomplished is great. The jobbers are thoroughly scared. In the past when they have been unable to cajole, buy or scare the commissioner they have brought influences to bear to cause him to resign.

LAMAR SEVERELY SUPERSEDED

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Within the past few days a $1000 clerkship in the pension bureau having become vacant, Secretary Lamar sent a requisition to the civil service commission for a certificate for a person to fill the position, in which he requested that the commission certify to the department the name of a female clerk from Dakota, he having found that that territory had no representation in the bureau. A reply to this request was prepared to-day by the commission, and forwarded to the secretary immediately. In it the commission decline to make certification as requested, and say in substance that it is the province of the commission, and not that of the secretary of the interior, to name the states and territories from which selections shall be made for certification upon requisitions, and with respect to this particular case that Dakota is not on the list for choice of appointments, and that therefore the commission will not select a clerk from that territory. This decision of the commission will, it is understood, be regarded by them as a precedent that will govern any future cases of the kind.

A REPUBLICAN BELIEVER IN JACKSON

WASHINGTON, June 1.—A. F. Howard, collector of customs at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, has tendered his resignation to the secretary of the treasury. In his letter he says that he has held the office since December [illegible], during which time he has endeavored to faithfully discharge its duties. He then adds: "I have also during all that time been a zealous member of the republican party, and in every way possible contributed to its success. Consequently my offensive partisanship can be established by many witnesses. For twenty years I have also been a firm believer in the old Jacksonian doctrine 'to the victor belongs the spoils.' Consistency therefore compels me firmly to adhere to those principles and convictions in defeat as well as in victory." To-day Alpheus Hanscom was appointed his successor.

REMOVAL

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Superintendent D. W. Rhodes of the division of postoffice supplies was to-day removed by the postmaster general and Morello Noyes, of Burlington, Vermont, was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Rhodes' division had been inspected by the committee appointed for the purpose and the postmaster general, being dissatisfied with the methods pursued, thought the public interests would be served by a change in the division. Mr. Noyes, who is appointed head of the division, is a well known merchant of Burlington and has always been a stanch democrat. He married a cousin of Postmaster General Vilas, but it is stated that his selection was made solely upon recommendation of Messrs. Smalley and Atkins of Vermont.

CALIFORNIA VERY HUNGRY

NEW YORK, June 1.—[Special.]—A Washington special gives a column and a half review and analysis of the California democracy, by an expert. He declares it is indeed a red letter day at the White house when the president is not besieged by one or more of the hungry, clamorous delegations, each bent on impeaching the party loyalty of the other. They are giving the administration more vexation and trouble than the applicants of any other state. No wonder the president's mind is confused, and the desire to replace incumbent republicans with honest democrats is absolutely thwarted.

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN

WASHINGTON, June 1.—At the request of the secretary of the interior the commissioner of the land office has caused an investigation to be made into the merits of the Gervacio Nolan land grant in New Mexico, who has reported that in his judgment all the lands claimed (about 575,000 acres) should be restored to the public domain with the exception of eleven square leagues, for which a patent has been issued.

It is probable a strong effort will be made by citizens of Dakota to induce the president to reconsider his decision to exclude settlers from the Crow Creek or Winnebago reservation.

A BAD OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON, June 1.—General Schofield to-day telegraphed to the war department the following dispatch dated Fort Bayard, yesterday, from General Crook, commanding the department of Arizona: "Eight parties of troops are scouting for Indians. The outlook is very bad, and the troubles will be exceedingly difficult to suppress." It is learned at the war department that between sixteen and twenty companies, containing about 1200 men, are in the field in pursuit of the Indians.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The president to-day made the following appointment: To be collector of internal revenue, Robert Barnett, for the fourth district of California.

The president to-day appointed Isaac H. Maynard of New York to be second comptroller of the treasury, vice W. W. Upton, Oregon, resigned by request. Judge Maynard is a resident of Delhi, New York, and at present holds the office of first deputy attorney general of the state.

George W. Julian of Indiana has been appointed to be surveyor general of New Mexico.

THE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE

Its next meeting will be held in Chicago, the [illegible] inst., for three days; in St. Louis two days, beginning the [illegible]; two in Des Moines, beginning on the 19th; two in Omaha, beginning the 22d, and two in St. Paul and Minneapolis, beginning the 24th.

AN IDAHO POSTMASTER GOES WRONG

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The chief postoffice inspector has been informed that Postmaster J. N. Hibbs of Lewiston, Idaho, issued money orders to the amount of $15,000 or $20,000 payable to himself, ordered banks in different cities to collect them and forward the money to him, and then absconded. He was last heard from at Victoria, British Columbia.

LAMAR AND BAYARD

Secretary Bayard left to-night for Lawrence, Kansas, where he will deliver an address before the literary societies of the Kansas state university.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—[Special.]—A new candidate for the office of surveyor of the port of San Francisco has appeared in Washington, in the person of R. M. Turner of Oakland. Mr. Turner is indorsed by Governor Stoneman, the Attorney General and other state officers of California.

A REQUEST DENIED

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Post says: "It is stated on high authority that the request of [illegible] S. W. [illegible] of Indiana to be transferred from the [illegible] mission to that of the Argentine Republic will not be granted by the president."

SPECIAL NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Senator Dolph Interviewed—The Silver Question—Democratic Simplicity a Fraud

WASHINGTON, June 1.—[Special.]—Senator Dolph of Oregon said that the subject of the future action of the majority of the senate in relation to nominations was discussed in caucus at different times, but no definite line of policy was adopted. It was found that the republicans differed among themselves, some contending so long as the senate is republican it should do all in its power to keep republicans in office, while others frankly declared the democrats had elected their president and were entitled to the offices. About the nearest approach to any fixed policy was the sentiment in permitting the cases of one or two democrats nominated to succeed republican collectors of revenue but recently appointed, to go over without action. It seemed to be the view of the majority that republican collectors who were but recently installed ought not to be displaced, but no objection would be made to the removal of collectors who had served several years. It will remain with the senate to fix a policy with regard to [illegible] next winter.

THE SILVER QUESTION

The [illegible] of Congressman Warner of Ohio as the [illegible] man is [illegible] indication of a coming storm. Warner is an aggressive silver man. He does not believe in the policy of suspending coinage. He does not indorse the views of the administration on this subject. It was to Warner that the president's letter on silver was addressed, and radical silver men in the democracy have never been satisfied that Cleveland should have outlined his policy on that subject before he delivered his inaugural. The administration will find itself in sharp antagonism to powerful elements in its party, both on financial and tariff questions. Congressman Mills of Texas is here. He is a blunt, plain spoken man and an enthusiastic free trader. He believes the democratic party is the party of free trade, and does not propose to bridle his tongue out of any consideration for expediency. He says he has prepared a tariff bill which he will introduce at the next session. It is a free trade bill. He was opposed to the Morrison horizontal bill and favors no concessions on that subject. Mills is not prepared to speak against the administration, but he evidently will be one of the leaders among southern men against the protective tariff and the national bank policy which it is clear the Cleveland administration will adopt. This declaration of Mills is one of the congressional breakers which are ahead of the administration.

THE NEW YORK GOVERNORSHIP

It is pretty well understood in government circles that neither of the New York cabinet officers, Manning and Whitney, desires to stand as a candidate for the nomination for governor of New York. They remember the fate of Folger, but it is now believed in the inner circle of New York politicians that Manning and Whitney have agreed to recommend to the president that the administration shall support Roswell P. Flower for that place. Flower has not thrown away ambition, even if his name was not mentioned in the presidential nominating convention at Chicago. He was here a few days ago, and had a long interview with the president, Whitney and Manning, and it is common talk here that the primary object of the president's visit to New York was to consult with local leaders as to the advisability of bringing out Flower.

DEMOCRATIC SIMPLICITY

The era of democratic simplicity has not fairly returned. The president in all his movements expresses a desire to avoid mixing with the common herd, and takes every occasion to shun the people save when absolutely obliged to meet them. It was announced, for instance, on Thursday that he would leave for New York at 10 o'clock at night, and a small crowd gathered to see him, but he left at [illegible] and he did not travel as other passengers do in an ordinary car. On the contrary he, with Secretaries Whitney and Endicott, took a private car, the property of the vice-president of one of the [illegible] railway monopolies. Democratic [illegible] talk [illegible].

AN OLD TRAGEDY RECALLED

Light Thrown on the Loss of the Sherman in Corea and the Beheading of her Crew

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Lieutenant George C. Foulk of the navy, naval attache of Seoul, Corea, March 20, [illegible] sent to the navy department an account of the destruction of the American schooner Sherman and the beheading of a portion of her crew on the Yellow sea, coast of Corea, in 1866. The narrative was prepared from accounts obtained from Corean Christians of good standing and is published for the first time. Foulk says: "The Sherman arrived in the [illegible] river in August and anchored a short distance below Pyong Yang city. The Sherman was seen from the walls of Pyong Yang, and was the cause of much excitement, but on account of the dangerous condition of the river, which was then very high, no boat ventured near her for some time. When the water began to subside the provincial governor sent officers to inquire her mission. The common people took advantage of the departure of these officers for the Sherman, to gratify their curiosity, and went with them, the whole party being in a large fleet of small boats which put out from shore together. The Sherman's people, not understanding the object of the approaching expedition, considered the movement as a hostile demonstration and fired several shots in the air. The officers, [illegible], were terrified back, and returned to the city. The river fell rapidly after this and in a few days the Sherman went aground. This was seen from the city walls and another fleet of boats came toward the schooner, this time with hostile intent, the people being armed. Shots were again fired from the Sherman and the Coreans turned back as before. Both the officers and the people were now enraged. Boats were loaded with combustible material and taken to points above the schooner anchorage. Here they were fired and allowed to drift down upon her. The Sherman was soon in flames and her people jumped overboard to save themselves, but most of them were drowned. A few were picked up by the Coreans in boats. The prisoners were [illegible] examined. They told the [illegible] of the Sherman's company [illegible]. All efforts to save themselves were useless, however, and in a few days they were [illegible] and beheaded."

COMMODORE SCHLEY'S STORY

In 1870 the United States government, [illegible] nothing of the Sherman's destruction. In the year [illegible] Admiral John Rodgers, in command of the Asiatic station, was ordered to investigate her loss. Commodore Schley, of Greely relief fame, was at the time connected with the station as lieutenant commander. Referring to the expedition to-day he said: "The Asiatic squadron went to the Yellow sea and to the mouth of the Salee river, our object being to learn if possible something of the Sherman's loss. In order to ascend the river we obtained permission from the Corean officials to make a survey of it. The squadron ascended the river some distance. The Palos and the Monocacy continued further. These two vessels were fired upon from the Corean fortifications and returned to the other vessels of the squadron. Admiral Rogers sent a message to the Corean officials giving them ten days in which they might make an explanation for firing on the American vessels. No attention was given to the communication, and at the expiration of the [illegible] days the admiral determined to secure an explanation by force. We landed 1000 men and attacked the fortifications. The result was that nearly [illegible]00 Coreans were killed and about [illegible] taken prisoners. We lost only twenty-five or thirty. The explanation afterwards given for firing on our vessels was that Coreans never allowed a foreign vessel to go up the river without firing on it. Our investigation of the Sherman's destruction was terminated because of the fight with the Coreans."

Commodore Schley attributes to this fight the making of a Corean treaty with the United States about two years ago.

THE COURT OF CLAIMS

It Adjourns Until October—A Number of Interesting Decisions

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The court of claims closed its term for the [illegible] and adjourned till October [illegible] next.

Assistant Attorney General Simmons announced his retirement from the department of justice, and introduced Judge Robert A. Howard of Little Rock, Arkansas, as his successor.

A large number of decisions were rendered. In the case of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company's claim for carrying mails, the petition was dismissed and an appeal noted.

The Union Pacific railroad case was a claim brought by the railroad company to recover for transportation of mails and for other service rendered the government, to which the government filed offsets for [illegible] per cent paid into the treasury under the act of 1864, and 25 per cent under the Thurman act. The court found the facts and reached a conclusion upon them last February, and an opinion was then read by the chief justice. It was then ordered by the court that computations [illegible] in accordance with the opinion, and experts have since been at work upon the matter. The computation is now complete, showing that the railroad is indebted to the government in something over $1,000,000. Judgment will be entered accordingly.

A decision was rendered to-day involving the right of the state of Illinois to certain swamp lands, to the effect that when the head of a department has decided a question, his successor cannot open it and transfer it to the court of claims for hearing. This was the only point [illegible] in this [illegible].

The Cherokee case, which [illegible] the attention of the court [illegible], [illegible] the Cherokees located in North Carolina versus the Cherokee nation residing in Indian territory. The former claim a share in certain permanent funds arising from commutation of annuities and in sales of certain common lands in the Indian country. The case was referred to the court by a special act of congress. On the facts the court decides that the claimant has no right in law or equity to any share of the moneys, stocks and bonds held by the United States in trust for the Cherokees, arising out of sales of lands lying west of the Mississippi river, nor to [illegible] to the permanent annuity fund mentioned in the act of March [illegible].

FUNERAL OF VICTOR HUGO

PARIS, June 1.—Although rain fell during the night and there was every indication in the early forenoon of more rain to-day, hundreds of thousands of people were abroad at daybreak, already crowding streets and boulevards through which the great procession will move that accompanies the remains of Victor Hugo to his last resting place in the Pantheon. Owing to the scarcity of accommodations in hotels thousands were compelled to bivouac in open air all night. The space around the Arc de Triomphe is already filled with the chief officers of state, members of diplomatic corps, senators and deputies. From all directions come deputations with draped banners and bearing flowers and gigantic wreaths, and all moving in the direction of the Arc de Triomphe, the Mecca of France to-day. Never before did Paris present such a scene. Chestnut trees in the Champs Elysee are in full bloom and form a strange contrast to the veiled lights, draped banners and vast sea of spectators, all in the habiliments of mourning, that lined either side of the immense field, and the brilliant forms of soldiers. Large bodies of cavalry occupy the streets leading to the Champs Elysee. Minute guns are being fired from the Hotel des Invalides and from Fort Valerien. The crowd is [illegible] orderly, and at this hour there is no sign of the trouble so much talked of and written about. Societies are taking the places assigned to them in the line of procession. Trains laden with visitors from the provinces and abroad are constantly arriving, and the enormous crowds already here are ever increasing.

THE PROCESSION

The funeral procession started punctually at noon. The threatening clouds of morning had disappeared by this time, and the sun shone forth brilliantly. Enormous crowds of people lined the streets that form the route of the procession, while other masses of people filled less interesting streets. For a great distance on either side buildings were black with people, as is indeed every point from which may be had a view of the unparalleled spectacle.

1:40 P. M.—The head of the procession escorting the body of Hugo to the Pantheon has just reached the [illegible] of illustrious dead. The immense crowd that fills the boulevard Michel includes thousands upon thousands of people who go to make up the disturbing or noisy element of the city's population. Now that the funeral is practically over these "roughs" threaten to inaugurate the revolutionary demonstration which has been expected since the death of Hugo.

3 P. M.—The funeral oration which M. Floquet delivered at the Arc de Triomphe touched the hearts of his hearers and was greatly applauded. The procession moved without a hitch in the prescribed programme. Police arrested several bearers of red flags, which were unfurled at starting points or the headquarters of several revolutionary societies. There has been, however, no serious collision yet.

NO TROUBLE EXPERIENCED

The funeral of Victor Hugo up to this hour (4:40 P. M.) has been allowed to be conducted with every mark of respect. The enormous mass of people in the streets are exceptionally quiet. Six orations were delivered under the Arc de Triomphe, in the presence of nearly all the illustrious men of modern France. Le Royer, president of the senate, said Victor Hugo constantly pursued a higher ideal of justice and humanity, and thus exercised immense influence over the moral feeling of France.

The funeral ceremonies were completed and the march of the procession ended without anything happening that might be called of a disorderly character. Accidents incident to the presence of such an immense concourse of people were numerous, and in many instances were of a serious character.

VERY FEW CASUALTIES

M. Allain Targe, minister of the interior, said this evening that there had been but few casualties during the funeral, and he expressed gratification at the orderly manner in which everything had been conducted. The police [illegible] had been enjoined to moderation and the owners of red flags [illegible].

The crowds in the [illegible] have torn down the long crape hangings which draped the Arc de Triomphe and have carried away the [illegible] as relics.

[illegible] surpassed everything within the memory of the oldest citizen. Such a concourse of people has rarely been witnessed in Paris. Before the start of the procession the police seized fifteen red flags and immediately destroyed them. Preceding the hearse were two cars laden with floral crowns. Besides these 800 wreaths were carried by various deputations. There is general rejoicing because of the absence of [illegible].

ENGLAND.

POLICE WATCHING FOR DYNAMITERS

LONDON, June 1.—The police are informed that two dynamiters have arrived in England and only await a favorable opportunity to carry out their designs. Notices have been sent to all police stations to arrest an Irish American who landed in England about the middle of May, took lodgings in London, and remained there until the 20th of May, when he disappeared in a most suspicious manner, going off with another Irish American, for whom the police are also on the watch.

A NEW PHASE PRESENTED

LONDON, June 1.—An official statement published in the Daily News to-day from [illegible] to the effect that the Russo-Afghan boundary question was still unsettled has highly disconcerted liberals and made the tories jubilant.

THE PENJDEH AFFAIR

LONDON, June 1.—A portion of the official papers relating to the attack by Russians on Afghans on March 30, have been published. They show that on March 4, Sir Peter Lumsden telegraphed to the government that the Russians were moving heaven and earth to get the Afghans to fight, and fighting was certain to occur. On April 6 he repeated his statement that the attack by General Komaroff upon the Afghans was deliberately planned. The subject of arbitration was first proposed by Lord Granville. M. DeGiers, Russian foreign minister, demurred, saying that the emperor of Germany would be the only fit person to arbitrate, and he would refuse. Lord Granville retorted that the emperor must consent if asked.

PATENT MEDICINES SEIZED

NEW YORK, June 1.—Evening Post's Montreal special: Last week authorities here seized a large consignment of patent medicines from the establishment of J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Massachusetts. An investigation has been going on for the past [illegible] years, the firm [illegible] undervaluing their consignments [illegible] defrauded the Canadian revenue. It is claimed by officers here that they have succeeded in proving that [illegible] in this manner, and the firm defend themselves by saying that the medicines were not compounded, and were therefore sent in bulk and valued merely at cost. An old employe of the firm testified, however, that the goods were compounded and ready for sale at a price 50 per cent higher than they were invoiced at. The goods now under seizure are valued at over $150,000.

THE TRIAL OF RIEL

OTTAWA, June 1.—The trial of Louis Riel will probably commence at Regina about the [illegible] of this month before Colonel Richardson, stipendiary [illegible].

EUROPEAN POLITICS

EXPULSION OF [illegible]

LONDON, June 1.—The supposition that the [illegible] of Russian Poles from German territory, where they had settled to escape Russian despotism, was due to an understanding between the governments of Russia and Germany seems to have no sufficient foundation. Russia, it appears, is anything but pleased at the action of the German authorities [illegible]. Many Germans who have been residing in Russia are being forced to return to their native country. Hardly any notice is even taken [illegible] and suffering at this [illegible]. In many instances these [illegible] destitute [illegible].

THE REBELS BECOMING TROUBLESOME

CAIRO, June 1.—Emissaries of El Mahdi now daily enter Suakim. Sheiks friendly to England are [illegible] in numbers. The Indian troops suffer terribly. The rebel forces are beginning to renew their attacks upon Suakim. More tribes hitherto friendly to the English are wavering in their fealty. El Mahdi has sent ten guns to Osman Digma, and a supply of arms and ammunition will follow.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE APACHE OUTBREAK

SILVER CITY, N. M., June 1.—Bear creek ranchmen driven in by Indians a week ago, returned home Saturday, finding fresh Indian signs. They found horses and cattle killed the same day. That night eight large Indian fires were seen on neighboring hills. The ranchmen returned to the city and reported the above facts. Yesterday twenty well armed frontiersmen, headed by Mayor Fleming, of this city, started for the locality determined to follow the trail until they overtook the Indians.

A courier from Captain Smith's command says he had a short fight at Moulton's sawmill. Negro soldiers ran.

A courier from Burro mountains reports no Indian signs south of Mangus valley, showing them to be chiefly north of this city, in the Bear creek and Upper Mimbres country. Those not gone north to the Black range are apparently heading for Arizona. Captain Smith is close behind, pushing the Indians toward the Gila. This comprises the largest portions of the Indians out in this section, and they are thought to be striving to return to the reservation, finding themselves cut off in other directions.

Thirty mounted Indians chased five prospectors near the head of the Sagatone, a tributary of Duck creek, Saturday. The Indians stole a herd of sheep and goats from the Upper Mimbres.

General Crook arrived at Fort Bayard yesterday. He will take the field in person, and will push operations to the extent of going to Mexico if necessary.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON, June 1.—A telegram to the adjutant general, dated San Francisco, May 28th, thus describes the movements of troops now pursuing Geronimo and his band in New Mexico: "The commanding general of the department of Arizona telegraphs that Lieutenant Davis, with scouts, was, on the 24th instant, fifty-five miles northwest of Silver City, New Mexico, trailing the hostiles, who are moving into the Black range toward Fort Bayard, near which they would probably pass the 28th. General Crook has asked and received authority from me to go to Fort Bayard, where he can best direct the movement of his own troops along the western line of New Mexico. I have authorized him to go to whatever point he could be of most service."

Commissioner Atkins to-day received the following dispatch from the Mescalero Indian agency, dated the 31st: "Hostile Indians are reported within twenty-five miles, west of here, heading this way. Three troops of cavalry, under Major Van Horn, started yesterday to intercept them. Forty Mescalero scouts accompanied the troops at the request of Major Van Horn. The Mescaleros and the Jicarillas are all quiet, and there is no fear of their joining the hostiles."

NOT CRAZY FROM DRINK

DENVER, June 1.—An intimation from Chicago to-day that Louis Reamme, the Denver painter, who captured the Wabash train between Kansas City and Chicago yesterday, was not crazy except from the effects of liquor, was received by his friends with indignant surprise. They say he does not drink, and that his acts on the Wabash train cannot be attributable to that cause. About 7 o'clock Friday evening, an hour before he started east, Reamme met Justice Sopris on Fourteenth street and complained that a lot of men were after him. He talked and acted in a manner that showed plainly he was crazy. Sopris told him he would better go home and lock himself up. He replied that he would as soon as he notified police that men were after him. He went to headquarters, made complaint and went back up town. He must have then gone directly to the train. Before he saw Sopris he went to the Merchants' stables and said a lot of men were after him and wanted to kill him, and asked for a horse to go to police headquarters. Several other men who saw him that evening say he was certainly crazy.

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

CINCINNATI, June 1.—The Presbyterian general assembly adjourned at 6 o'clock this evening. Various standing committees made their final reports and were discharged. A resolution against restricting Chinese immigration was discussed, but finally withdrawn because any action on the subject was considered impolitic. Resolutions upon the death of Rev. R. J. Stanton, who died at Yatsca, were passed, and a copy ordered sent to the family of the deceased minister. Westminster Presbyterian church of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was chosen as the next place of meeting.

BIG STRIKE AT PITTSBURG

PITTSBURG, June 1.—Workmen in the iron mills where the new scale has not been signed went out on a strike this morning. Thus far ten out of thirty-eight iron and steel mills in this district have signed, but there does not seem to be much prospect for general resumption in the near future. Among the iron manufacturers there seems to be a determined opposition to the terms proposed by the union. If their utterances are in earnest, the chances for a speedy adjustment of the difficulties is exceedingly small.

THE CHICAGO MUDDLE SETTLED

CHICAGO, June 1.—The city council held a harmonious meeting to-night, and amicably agreed to finish its canvass of the ballots cast at the last municipal election. The democrats withdrew their objections to the acceptance of returns substituted for the ones stolen from the third precinct of the third ward, and being counted the canvass was completed, with Neumeister for city clerk defeated by 190 votes, and Harrison's majority reduced to [illegible] votes.

A [illegible] FOR EDMUNDS

NEW YORK, June 1.—[Special.]—A special from Burlington, Vermont, says: The determination of Blaine's partisans to defeat Senator Edmunds in the legislature of 1886 has already begun to take shape. It is pretty generally understood that ex-Governor Smith, president of the Central Vermont railway, ex-Governor Proctor, ex-Governor Stewart, Judge Powers of the supreme court, and the venerable Luke P. Poland will be in the field.

COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON

NEW YORK, June 1.—[Special.]—Fish Commissioner Blackford said this morning: "The Columbia river salmon season is about over now. We ceased ordering a supply last week. I don't think the demand for Pacific coast salmon was quite as large as last year. We received no carload lots at all. Shipments were just large enough to supply the demand at paying rates. Express charges were somewhat less this year than last."

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION

NEW YORK, June 1.—"General Grant," said Dr. Douglas, in leaving the house this morning, "had a pretty fair night, sleeping in snatches and waking to apply a lotion to relieve the pain in his throat. He is, I think, a little easier, but suffers very much as the disease progresses, though he is apparently improved in his general condition. He may be able to take a drive to-day."

FIVE PERSONS DROWNED.

WILMINGTON, June 1.—Mrs. James W. Winn, a widow, and three of her children, and Mrs. Tony Stefano, wife of an Italian musician of this city, were drowned off Zeje's island, about twenty-five miles below this city, to-day. The children were wading in the water and getting beyond their depth, Mrs. Winn and Mrs. Stefano went to their rescue, when all were drowned.

ONLY A MYTH

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 1.—The report regarding the stopping of Theodore Thomas' Orchestra at Coolidge, on the line of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad, some days ago by cowboys, is a myth and exists only in the imagination of a newspaper correspondent at that point. Thorough investigation has brought this to light.

Who Will be the Next President?

Is an important question to every citizen of the United States, but, far more essential is the knowledge how to live our life as the Great Creator intended. That knowledge is imparted in Dr. Pierce's "Common Sense Medical Adviser"—nearly 1000 pages and about 300 illustrations—published by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and sent, on receipt of one dollar and fifty cents, to any address.

Senator Sherman's Reception at Albany and Salem.

NOTES FROM SOUTHERN OREGON.

The Nez Perces Pass through Lewiston—Horse Thief Killed in Idaho—A Schooner Collides with a Whale.

ALBANY, June 1.—[Special.]—A large crowd was present at the depot to-day to welcome Senator Sherman, who was announced to arrive on the north bound train. At dinner Mayor Ketchum, in a few appropriate remarks, introduced the senator to the people. He made a few brief remarks, closing by saying that the most beautiful sight of his life were the mountains which bound the Willamette valley, "the garden spot of God's green earth." After his remarks he shook hands with many, and was then introduced to Governor Moody and Secretary Earhart, who came here to meet him, and was then shown to his new quarters in the palace car "Albany," named in honor of this city. The car was praised by hundreds, who, through the courtesy of Conductor Conser, were allowed to go through and examine it. As the train pulled away lively music was played by the uniformed band, and hundreds of voices united in bidding good-bye and wishing a pleasant trip to the distinguished guest.

AT SALEM

SALEM, June 1.—[Special.]—Hon. John Sherman, United States senator from Ohio, arrived here to-day with the regular train from the south, the president's car having been kindly placed at his disposal. He was accompanied from Albany by Governor Moody and Secretary Earhart, and was met at the train by Mayor Skinner, a deputation from the city council and the following committee of citizens: A. Bush, J. G. Wright, W. H. Odell, George Johnson, J. J. Briggs, John W. Crawford, D. W. Craig, R. B. Grover, W. M. Ladue, William England and E. O. Norton.

The car was detached from the train, and side-tracked, the distinguished party having entered carriages, the first one being occupied by the guest of the day, Governor Moody, Secretary Earhart and Mayor Skinner, followed by a number of carriages containing prominent citizens in our midst. The Home Amusement club band was on hand and discoursed some entertaining airs. The line of march was taken up through the principal streets and terminated at Governor Moody's residence, where the senator met and was introduced to a number of our representative citizens. He is accompanied by a nephew, Mr. Sherman, Messrs. Hedges and Carpenter, prominent citizens of Mansfield, Ohio, Senator Sherman's home.

The party this afternoon were driven around the city and visited the various state institutions, including the state capitol, where they spent some time in conversation with the state officers. They all express themselves delighted with their trip and speak very highly of the portion of the state they have thus far seen. They will be tendered an informal reception at Governor Moody's residence this evening and will leave in the morning on the Albany express train for Portland.

SALEM NEWS ITEMS

SALEM, June 1.—[Special.]—The team attached to Governor Moody's family carriage ran away yesterday, and the occupants had a narrow escape from fatal injuries. Governor Moody was thrown out, and received some severe bruises, and his daughter, in jumping from the vehicle, sprained her ankle severely. The other parties, four in number, were not injured, although the carriage was almost ruined.

The examination of the parties charged with the murder of Bart. Coffey is in progress. The prosecution has not made as strong a case as was anticipated, but no conclusion will be arrived at before to-morrow. Messrs. Dawne and Ford are conducting the prosecution and Messrs. Holmes, Bell and Hayden the defense.

DEATH OF A MINING EXPERT.

GRANT'S PASS, June 1.—[Special.]—Mr. H. P. Macnevin, who was sent here by wealthy San Francisco capitalists to superintend mining operations now going on on the [illegible] ledge in this county, was brought to this place from the mine last Thursday in an insane condition. He left here in the company of friends for his home on Friday night, but died this side of Yreka. Ex-Governor S. F. Chadwick is here to take the place of Mr. Macnevin. Late developments in the mine are of the most encouraging nature.

GRANT'S PASS THE NEW COUNTY SEAT.

GRANT'S PASS, June 1.—[Special.]—A special election to vote upon the relocation of the county seat of Josephine county was held to-day. Three places were candidates for the honor, to-wit: Grant's Pass, Wilderville and Kerbyville. Following are the returns received up to this hour: For Grant's Pass [illegible], for Wilderville 81, for Kerbyville 5. There are four precincts yet to hear from. Grant's Pass has undoubtedly received a majority of the votes of the county.

JACKSONVILLE NOTES.

ALBANY, June 1.—[Special.]—At a meeting of the fire boys who will attend the Astoria tournament, held last evening, it was decided to remain over Saturday in Portland if proper inducements were offered.

CALIFORNIA.

DECREASE IN VALUATION.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—[Special.]—The city and county assessor's personal property tax roll, which was submitted to the board of supervisors to-day, show a decrease in valuation from last year of over two and a half million dollars. This year's roll foots up in round numbers $56,600,000, and last year's $59,400,000. In a communication addressed to the supervisors the assessor states that items of merchandise, shipping and estates in probate show the principal decrease. The past year has been an unusually dull one among the mercantile and business community, and the same causes still exist, viz: restricted business districts, caused by the opening of the Northern Pacific railroad cutting off the Oregon and the northern trade, and the Southern Pacific, the Arizona trade, and its tributaries. The item of shipping is greatly reduced, it being nearly $500,000 less than last year. The reduction is largely caused by the operation of the new law passed by the last legislature, by which we are required to divide assessment with other counties on vessels plying on waters of the bay—ferries, etc.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

THE NEZ PERCES AT LEWISTON.

LEWISTON, I. T., June 1.—[Special.]—Thirty-one bucks and ninety-eight squaws and pappooses of Joseph's band arrived this morning by steamer, accompanied by a detachment of Company G, Second cavalry. The remainder of the company, and a number of Indians, police, and a large number of reservation Indians had assembled. The hostiles were gaily appareled in broadcloth, and the squaws and pappooses had silk handkerchiefs, sunshades, gold jewelry, and fine trappings generally, and more trunks and baggage than white people. Citizens and families witnessed their arrival. Salmon river citizens present failed to recognize any of the participants in the massacres of 1877. Much bad feeling prevails over the government returning these Indians. The Indians departed immediately for Lapwai agency, having a peaceful passage through the city.

HORSE THIEF KILLED

LEWISTON, June 1.—[Special.]—Al. Talkington, sheriff of Idaho county, with a posse comprising Parker, Anderson and Sutherland, shot and killed a horse thief named Fox last midnight, at Lapwai agency. Fox resisted arrest, and drew a revolver on Talkington. All four fired, inflicting four fatal wounds. The coroner's inquest this morning returned a verdict of justifiable homicide. An accomplice named Hutchinson shortly after drew a rifle on the sheriff, but was promptly disarmed and surrendered. The horses were stolen from Camas prairie. The prisoner and corpse have just been brought to Lewiston.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTORIA

VICTORIA, June 1.—At the annual meeting of the Kootenay Railway Company to-day, a mortgage of $1,500,000 was authorized. It was resolved to sell galena mining claims for $1000, so as to enable independent companies to be formed, and the country opened rapidly.

Chinese resist payment of the $10 head tax and have heavily feed counsel. A case in the police court to-day of a firm who refused to pay, was taken under advisement. The defense maintain that the tax is ultra vires. Trouble is feared at Yale, where Chinese goods were seized and the police force is weak.

The British American cannery property was sold to-day at auction for $[illegible].

The schooner Onward, from the sealing grounds, reports that on the night of the 20th ult., she collided with a whale which was probably asleep in the ocean seventy-five miles from land. The whale struck back, nearly throwing the vessel clear of the water, and leaving a piece of his hide on the side of the schooner. The vessel was nearly capsized by the shock, but sustained no damage, although every one on board was thrown down.

Pool selling is a misdemeanor, under a Dominion act. On the queen's birthday Charles Clancey, late of Seattle, and others, sold pools at the race course. To-day Clancey was brought before the police court, and after partial examination the case went over.

The bodies of a white man and a Chinaman were picked up in the Fraser river yesterday. There is no clue to the names or the cause of the drowning.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1885.

THE COMING CITY ELECTION.

The regular annual city election to be held on the 15th inst. (one week from next Monday) will be even more than usually important because it involves a change in the mayoralty. A successor to Mayor Chapman is to be chosen to serve three years also successors to Councilmen Smith, Adams and Scoggin to hold office for the same period. The men who are to be chosen will hold the executive authority, and the balance of power in the council. Practically, they will have in their hands the administration of city affairs and the disbursement of half a million dollars of public money each year, and all without other bond than that afforded by personal character. It is highly important that fit men be chosen, men of capability, honesty and of high public esteem. No man who in the management of his own affairs or of such public business as may have fallen to his hand has shown want of capacity, no man against whose integrity there is a taint of suspicion, no man who is not widely known and universally respected and trusted should be thought of in connection with any of the places to be filled.

The scandals of our city government under the administration soon to retire are a public shame whose details, already too familiar, need not be rehearsed. We have had a lesson in disgrace which is a warning for the future and a warning that must be heeded. The retirement of the present mayor must end the wretched chapter. A clean man must take the vacated seat and rightfully restore the dignity and honor which for three years have been strangers to it. The people will have it so. There are scores of men in either of the political parties who would fill all the requirements of the place and who would gladly serve the public. There is no excuse for putting up a "nobody" or a man not in all respects fit, and neither party can hope to win with a candidate not entirely worthy.

But there is reason to fear that efforts will be made to force improper candidates upon the people and in such a way that there will be no chance for effective opposition. If such attempts are made, they must be beaten, and the people will do it. There must be no triumph of "management" in this matter, no successful job in the interest of spoilsmen.

The primary elections must be honest and the nominations must be made in time to give voters the opportunity for comparison, and, if neither ticket suits them, to look about for a better candidate. It has been a common trick of political managers to hold the nominating conventions only one or two days before the day of election, the interim not being sufficient to allow organization or alliance against the ring nominees. That game must not be attempted this time, for the people will not have it so.

The democrats have led off in the right direction. They have called their convention to meet on the Wednesday preceding the Monday of election and have named men for judges of their primary whose names assure an honest count of the votes cast. The republicans must at least do as well and they ought to do better, by calling their convention at an earlier date even than that fixed by the democrats. This matter is in the hands of the city committee, whose members are Councilman W H. Adams, Councilman W H Andrus and Mr W W Spaulding. It is high time these gentlemen were stirring about the public business confided to them. And two things they must bear in mind, namely, the nominating day must be at least five days before the day of election and the judges of the primary election to choose delegates must be men of well known integrity. The duty of the committee is plain, and it is immediate.

THE NINETY AND NINE.

Senator Edmunds warned republican office holders at the beginning of this administration that it was only a question of time when most of the offices will be in the hands of the democrats. "This," he said, "is according to the inexorable logic of necessity, weightier than any which attends the intentions of Mr Cleveland or any one, sincere and deliberate as they unquestionably are." Senator Edmunds had seen Hayes fail and Garfield at war with his party, and so he doubted Cleveland's capacity to ride the whirlwind of wrath and hate that would be sure to strike him, if he did not make his administration democratic in a partisan way.

Many republicans, who supported Senator Edmunds for the nomination at Chicago a year ago, and bolted Blaine, doubtless thought he had more confidence in the practicability of their plan for the divorce of the civil service from partisan politics. The office-holders of the federal government of the United States number at the highest, perhaps, 115,000 men and women, nine-tenths of them men. There are probably 15,000,000 men entitled to vote in the country, and nearly 11,000,000 voted at the last election. In other words, not one in a hundred of the men and heads of families in the whole country gets his living by service to the United States government. The other ninety nine are indebted to their own exertions or property for their support, except another small per cent., who are employed in state and municipal government.

It must have disappointed the mugwump friends of Senator Edmunds to learn that he attached so much consequence to the hundredth man, and so little to the influence of the ninety and nine who have no sort of interest in the disposition of the public offices beyond the mere question of their honest and efficient administration. The ninety and nine are interested only to the end that Cleveland removes incompetent and inharmonious executive and administrative agents, they are not at all interested in the question whether a democrat, hungry and thirsty for a chance at the public crib for twenty four years, is given the place of an entirely competent republican incumbent.

The Buffalo Courier, a staunch democratic paper, denounces the recent Kentucky action of negro vagrants as barbarism, and raises the question whether such treatment of convicts could not be effectually prevented by an appeal to the United States courts on the ground that it is in violation of the thirteenth amendment. This amendment, it says, authorizes involuntary servitude as a punishment for crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted. But it would seem that punishment must not only be an element of the sentence, but that it must also be involved in the manner in which the sentence is carried out. If this view is correct, penal servitude must be public and cannot be private, and it must be carried out under official supervision and responsibility to distinguish it from slavery as prohibited by the thirteenth amendment of the constitution. An appeal to the federal courts may therefore result in the overthrow of the vagrant laws of Kentucky and other states.

The Philadelphia Inquirer attributes the vast superiority of our business men in energy and buoyancy of spirits over the same class in Europe to our lack of war and rumors of war, which on the other side of the ocean have an unsettling and exhaustive influence. "We little appreciate the expense and uncertainties attending the liabilities of war which are always present to foreign nations. As the Inquirer says, "our English, French and German friends may be astonished at our elastic go-aheadativeness and wonder at our industrial and commercial progress but we Americans, on our part, are astonished at the frightful loads they contrive to carry and wonder how it is they can get on at all with such mountainous millstones around their necks."

New England points with pride to the fact that "no other state or nation ever placed so large a loan at so low a rate of interest" as the twenty five year three per cent. bonds of Connecticut, disposed of a few days ago. Not only the repudiating states of the Union, but the great empires of Europe, whose consols and bonds fluctuate with rumors of war, may take a lesson from this frugal and honest little corner of the globe.

THE CASE OF RIEL.

Riel a captive appears to give the Dominion government as much uneasiness as did Riel the rebel leader. In whatever way the government may dispose of him a large and powerful element of the people will be dissatisfied. To execute him means to raise up against the government the hostility of a very large body of French Canadians in the province of Quebec who are strongly in sympathy with Riel, and whose support Sir John Macdonald can ill afford to lose. On the other hand, the Orange element of Ontario and other provinces of the Dominion will listen to no proposition less than his execution. One of the foulest murders which darkens the annals of Canadian history was the shooting of Thomas Scott, a prominent member of the Orange order, by Riel, at Fort Garry, in 1870, and his death, it is said, must now be avenged. A possible means of escape from these alternatives is to have Riel declared crazy and then sentenced to some convenient insane asylum, whence he can escape across the line into the United States. By any method yet suggested it bids fair to cost Sir John McDonald more to get rid of the troublesome half breed this time than it did after the former revolt, when Riel pocketed his $3000 and quietly emigrated to the United States. Such a dilemma as besets the Dominion government would hardly have troubled a ministry that had acted honestly and carefully in adjusting the claims of the Northwestern settlers.

But having vindicated its authority in the Northwest, the government should not longer neglect the real cause of this trouble. The settlers had a real grievance in the confusion which the government survey was making among their holdings. The actual settlers might easily have been left in undisturbed possession of their original lots and the survey confined to the wild lands. But the government was headstrong in its notion to map the whole country out with the regularity of a chess board, and the half-breeds did not like it. The government carries its point at a fearful cost.

When Ex-governor Jarvis of North Carolina went to the state department to receive his credentials as minister to Bazil he was accompanied by Senators Vance and Ransom. When he was about to be sworn the clerk said, as usual "Hold up your right hand, governor." To which Governor Jarvis replied "Oh, no, I can't do that, for some of my northern friends, a few years ago, made that impossible." Then turning to the two senators from his state he said with much fervor "Gentlemen, this is the grandest and most magnanimous country on the face of the earth. Twenty years ago we were doing our best to destroy this government, but failed. Now, instead of expatriation or any other punishment, you are senators of the United States and I am going abroad as an official representative of our country at a foreign court. There is nothing like this in history." This was an expression of feeling that northern people can appreciate.

The refusal of the trades union of Chicago to permit anarchists and socialists to take part in their annual parade is of more than common interest and significance. There is nothing in the character or in the sentiments of these strangers, in every sense, to American institutions to commend them to the favor of the American toiler, and the sooner they subside into peaceable citizenship, or go back to the land whose abnormal conditions gave birth to their monstrous social ideas, the better it will be for the industrious class whom they annoy by pretending to champion. It is encouraging to reflect that the union of Chicago, in rejecting the proffered association of foreign adventurers with red flags and loud mouths, at their annual celebration, have undoubtedly voiced the general sentiment of skilled and unskilled labor throughout the Union.

The Evening Wisconsin thinks the individual who would undertake to defend the transportation of immigrants from New York to Chicago for one dollar each and harmonize it with the rights of stockholders of the railroads would assume a large contract. This paper appears not to know how cheaply passengers can be transported when there are enough of them. A few years ago the Grand Trunk road, in a war of rates with the Boston and Albany, carried thousands of first-class passengers from Chicago to Boston for five dollars each and made a good deal of money by it.

In the court of Quebec property valued at three millions has been adjudged to the grandson of a Hudson bay trader by an Indian wife. Without knowing anything about the circumstances of the case, it is evident that the principle involved in this decision is right. The Indian women, who became the wives of the traders without the form of Christian ceremony, committed no offense in their own eyes or according to their knowledge, and they and their offspring are entitled to all the rights which law and justice can give.

General Crook's merciful policy toward the Apache chief has failed. Having been well treated and well fed during the winter by the government, instead of being hung as he ought this fellow shows his gratitude by starting another raiding movement which may cost the country dearly. He will undoubtedly be a better Indian when he is dead.

It is said that the president has started a "black list," made up of those who mislead the administration in recommending appointments. When offices are given to pay debts or gain favors there is little security for good appointments.

ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES.

Meetings in Behalf of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society. The President's Address.

Large audiences assembled in the Calvary Presbyterian and the Taylor Street M E church on Sunday evening, to hear the seventh annual reports and anniversary address of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society. The addresses were delivered by the Revs. F R. Marvin, T L Eliot, G H Lee, E W Caswell and W R Stevenson. Hon H W Corbett, the president of the society, delivered the following address:

Six years have elapsed since I addressed the good people of Portland in the interests of this society. The need of such a home and bethel as [illegible] Our good name as the commercial port of Oregon and the north west is [illegible] all that pertains to the welfare of the [illegible] that go and come in the numerous ships that annually visit our port. Should it not be [illegible] very well a pleasant harbor of refuge to which seafaring men [illegible] that they may anticipate [illegible] visit instead of being exposed to [illegible] Those who make it a study and the practice to degrade, debauch and defraud them [illegible] own good impulses and wishes [illegible] might be sober industrious and [illegible] worthy of sympathy and protection [illegible] duty to support and maintain a home with [illegible] surroundings as will save them from [illegible] to all are them [illegible] has always found friends and [illegible] in the body of [illegible] Such were the impulses that [illegible] the appeal for a mariners home [illegible] a substantial brick building eligibly located at the corner of Third and D streets. It is pronounced by visitors to be one of the most [illegible] institutions in the world. Several [illegible] seamen, steamboat men and longshoremen have [illegible] there a pleasant home free from the evils [illegible] of the ordinary sailor boarding houses. It has been the aim of our superintendent Chaplain Stubbs and his estimable wife to make it a home indeed, where all sailors find friends ready to aid them in time of trouble. It has been attended by many personal sacrifices on their part. They need your sympathy and cooperation in many ways. We bespeak for them your hearty support in their difficult task. They have accomplished much during the [illegible] have been with us, but there is [illegible] done to remedy all the evils of [illegible] blood money is extorted and wrong [illegible] by many of those who have too [illegible] over the unprotected mariners. We [illegible] idly by and permit such outrages [illegible] or by our indifference permit them [illegible] and debauched and then be disposed of fraudulently while deprived of reason [illegible] raise up friends and create a public [illegible] that will put down such outrages [illegible] Lives of these men are lives of toil and privation, mostly, they come to us as strangers in a strange land, and we have resolved that they shall find in us friends and protectors.

The persistent practice of boarding vessels entering the Columbia river from foreign ports, by sailor crimps, to induce crews to desert and go to sailor boarding houses, is a great detriment and menace to the best interests of shipping and seamen arriving here. By this practice vessels are constantly deprived of their crews, and forced to obtain new ones. The men thus induced to desert constitute the source of great revenue to these sailor boarding house keepers. Being once in their power ships are largely compelled to go to them for crews and submit to such terms as they may exact.

To correct these great evils we ask the United States authorities, consignees and ship owners to cooperate and eradicate these abuses the former by enforcing laws which forbids the boarding of ships until they have been in port twenty four hours, the latter by refusing to take crews from such parties. [illegible]

Chaplain Stubbs made a stirring appeal in each of the churches, following the president, in which he portrayed the persistent, unscrupulous and systematic methods of certain sailor boarding house keepers to defraud sailors after inducing them to desert—to extort the largest possible sums for crews from the very ships they have previously deprived of their men and by vilifying the home and its superintendent, and [illegible] to deter shipmasters from having anything to do with the mariners, hoping by these means, through the agency of a kind of middle man, whom they call a "shipping master," to maintain a monopoly of the shipping business, and, if possible, defeat the objects of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society in erecting the home.

The addresses by the other speakers were all deeply interesting and were highly appreciated by the audiences. About $200 was collected.

The reports show that this institution and the Bethel are doing an excellent work, and the interest evinced by the large audiences shows that the people appreciate and will sustain the interesting labors of the superintendent and his devoted wife in the home and in the bethel.

The American Seamen's Friend Society of New York also manifests its continued interest in this auxiliary society and expresses its undiminished confidence in the chaplain and his able colleague, and hence continues to forward its financial aid. It should also be mentioned that this society at New York continues its monthly remittances to the bethel work at Astoria, under the charge of Rev J McCormac, who is one of its chaplains.

The Rev. F R. Marvin said very forcibly in his address, "The American Seamen's Friend Society is God's helping hand to sailors around the globe."

Warsaw (Ind.) Times: An offensive partisan is always a Republican. Democrats, no matter how much they may have encouraged the assassination at Lincoln or the wholesale murder of inoffensive colored people simply because they persisted in voting the republican ticket, can in no sense become offensive partisans according to the present administration's ideas.

EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST.
By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—Civil Service Gazette.

A TESTIMONIAL.
PORTLAND, OR., May 25, 1885.
To Shippers and Consignees—Gentlemen: On my arrival here I engaged the chaplain of the Mariners' Home to procure a crew for my ship, the Tillie E. Starbuck. The best crew I have had for several years has been furnished my vessel. The men came on board promptly and in condition to "turn to" at once. Every man from the Mariners' Home speaks in the highest terms of the treatment in that institution. They came on board well supplied with clothing. I cheerfully recommend Chaplain Stubbs to my brother shipmasters. He is courteous, conscientious and obliging. He deserves all the encouragement that can be conferred by consignees and shipmasters.

A TESTIMONIAL.

PORTLAND, OR., May 25, 1887.

To Shippers and Consignees—Gentlemen On my arrival here I engaged the chaplain of the Mariners' Home to procure a crew for my ship the Tillie E. Starbuck. The best crew I have had for several years has been furnished by him. The men came on board promptly and in condition to "turn to" at once. Every one knows the Mariners' Home speaks in the highest terms of the treatment in that institution. They came on board well supplied with clothing. I cheerfully recommend Chaplain ... to my brother shipmasters. He is courteous and obliging. He deserves all the encouragement that can be conferred by shippers and shipmasters.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

GREAT SPORT CATCHING SALMON.—Fishermen are enjoying fine sport now at the falls at Oregon City. There are hosts of salmon there, not the little bluebacks which used to be fished for but real chinook salmon. The fishing is best in the morning and evening, scarcely any being taken in the middle of the day. On Saturday William Honeyman and R. R McGregor, a namesake of the original Rob Roy, visited the falls and during the day caught nine salmon, weighing in all 150 pounds These two gentlemen are old fishing cronies, who probably wet their first hooks in some wimpling Scotch burn, and who have during the last ten years fished together in most of the good trout streams of Oregon but they never had so much sport or caught so great weight of fish in one day before Mr Honeyman caught four fish, the heaviest weighing 20 pounds Mr McGregor caught five the largest weighing 0 pounds He had a common bamboo rod, number two spoon and silk trout line Both gentlemen look upon Saturday's work as the finest sporting achievement of their lives D. Monastes caught a 25-pound fish a day or two since, and W P Berger caught one weighing over 20 pounds, Henry Christie and Mr Coy hooked 18 fish on Sunday, but only succeeded in landing nine of them But the party who had the most fun was a young man who don't care to have his name mentioned. He got close up under the falls where the salmon were crowding together to try the leap up the cataract, and amused himself "gigging" them He lost $6 worth of spoons and broke his rod and line and never got a fish He hooked a big fish in the back and it ran out all his line, and jumping ten feet in the air snapped the line and started for Astoria He saw some huge fish trying to jump the falls, but they could not leap so far as the medium sized ones generally being thrown against the rocks and falling bruised and scarred into the seething pool below. The wicker-work trap at the falls catches many fish, which are free to all who want to take them.

A FEW MINUTES AT THE CITY JAIL.—James Bennett, who said he had arrived from Ohio on Sunday evening, was arrested about 7 o clock last evening for begging on the streets. As usual, he was not hungry for bread, he was hungry for beer He had refused an offer of a meal and was demanding coin when he was taken in charge. His sniveling had but little effect, as he was half drunk at the time. The captain on duty at the station had just finished searching him, when a short, stout young man, who has been seen around the county jail, was brought in in a state of good-natured idiocy from fooling with the beer when it foameth in the mug. He had been trailed in the dust and looked as if he had been rolled in flour for frying He demanded to know why he—hic—had been—hic—'rested, and threatened to get even on his captor. When he had been searched he dropped into a chair and slumbered, while Billy Lickachief looked on, wishing that he was just half as drunk Then a Chinaman popped in and inquired if his cousin had been arrested, and went off only half satisfied with an answer in the negative He was hardly outside the door when a man entered in quest of his cow "What kind of a cow is it?" asked the captain "A mooley," was the answer "You will find her in the pound, on Fourteenth street, between P and Q," said the captain, who held out his hand for $2 25, which was forked over, and the man started to secure his mooley As he stepped out the Chinaman popped in again to inquire for his friend once more The remarks which followed it is not necessary to give here

CALVARY CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT —A very enjoyable entertainment was given by the ladies of the Calvary Presbyterian church at Turn halle last evening The first part of the programme consisted of musical selections. The zither solo by Miss Valentin was all that could be wished, and reflects great credit upon the performer "How a Woman Uses a Telephone," as rendered by Miss Luse, was exceedingly comical The honors of the evening were conferred upon Miss Ella Lark, of Dr Scott's Presbyterian church, San Francisco She has a very sweet, tuneful soprano voice, of great flexibility and culture, her rendering of "It was a Dream" being exceedingly enjoyable The evening's entertainment concluded with the laughable comedy, "The Loan of a Lover" Mr Wm Lee, in the character of Peter Spyk, the simple farmer, proved himself a fair comedian. Miss Lena Morgan, as Gertrude, acted the character to perfection, her singing being one of the most enjoyable parts of the entertainment. The whole piece, in fact, was remarkably free from the faults of amateur acting. After the exercises the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, and every one returned home pleased with the evening's entertainment.

BOYS' MINSTREL SHOW.—The Brackett Comedy Company held forth last night to a crowded house, or rather, woodshed. The boys have built up a side and stretched a canvas over the new part. Raised benches furnish seating room for nearly 100 persons This temple of minstrelsy is located at 145 Seventh street, and last night was visited by a number of curiosity seekers and friends of the performers. The admission fee is small and graded as to age of the visitor, yet some very large boys try to work the small boy admission. The curtain rose on a small stage, on which sat four end men, six vocalists and an interlocutor A first part furnished some mirth and several very well rendered songs Some of the jokes given would do credit to older performers. The second part was made up of sketches, specialty acts, dancing and singing by little girls. Actors as well as audience appear to enjoy these performances, and the boys are kept off the streets. The Brackett company is made up of Willie and Ray Brackett, George and Jack Little, Willie Battersby, Fred. Koshland, George Rodgers, N. Kiter, W Harris and I Mendelson. Little Dot Stanley and two young girls are ballad singers

IN SAD CIRCUMSTANCES —The San Francisco Examiner of May 29 has the following "The proprietor of the Waldo lodging house heard a weeping and wailing in one of the rooms of the house yesterday, and upon opening the door beheld a young woman and young man, reclining in each other's arms, crying vigorously. A hack was called and the woman driven to the City Receiving hospital, where at 2 30 P M she gave birth to a girl baby. The name given by the woman was Mrs Emma Crosbie. About eleven months since she married George Crosbie in Oregon, and had lived with him but a short time when she discovered that he had a greater fondness for beer and cards than he had for his wife They came to this city and she supported herself by working in a restaurant on Third street near Mission, until her condition forced her into retirement Yesterday she sent for her husband, and her tale of woe so touched his heart that he broke down and they wept together until the landlord's attention was attracted "

PRESENTATION TO BISHOP GLORIEUX Right Rev A J Glorieux, the newly appointed vicar apostolic of Idaho, was the recipient last evening of a very substantial present at the hands of a number of the Catholic laity Mr C I Hogan, after a neat address, presented to his lordship a purse containing quite a sum of money The bishop was completely taken by surprise and responded feelingly thanking them very much for their wholly unexpected gift. Archbishop Gross, who was present, entertained the audience with a few pointed anecdotes, after which Bishop Glorieux shook hands with all present, bidding them farewell. The bishop will in all probability leave some time this week for his new field of labor.

IMPORTED BIRDS DOING WELL —The game birds brought here from China by Judge Denny and presented to the Rod and Gun club, are doing well on Protection island, where, through the advice and efforts of Frank T. Dodge, superintendent of the river and Sound division of the O R & N Co, they found an asylum. The owner of the island writes to the club giving an account of their habits The silver pheasants keep concealed in the brush, and the others are but seldom seen, except the golden pheasants, some of which are as tame as chickens He has seen the hens of nearly all the varities with broods of chickens. From the tenor of the letter all is going on favorably with the birds.

F Sears, Jr, was appointed to defend them.

A NOVEL RACE.—Fred T Merrill goes to McMinnville Thursday to run a 200-yard race for $50 a side, with $25 added by the race track managers, with Martin, the Yamhill foot runner, Merrill to ride the bicycle against Martin on foot, with almost an even start, Merrill having ten feet in which to mount his wheel.

FELL FROM A TREE.—A gentleman residing on East Park street between F and G, has a fine cherry tree in his front yard, the branches of which interlace with a large shade tree in the street Last night about 10 o'clock he thought he heard some boys at the cherries and sent his own son to the door to order them away The lad ran back in a moment very much frightened and told his father there were no boys in the cherry tree, but there was a man dead on the sidewalk The father went out and sure enough there was a man lying unconscious He had evidently been stealing cherries by climbing up in the shade tree, and had fallen thence to the ground He came to in a few minutes, and no effort being made to detain him, his identity will probably forever remain unknown

FIGHTERS FINED —Yesterday afternoon Justice Greene of North Portland precinct had a double case of assault and battery for trial. On Memorial day John Telge, a vagabond, went into Thomas Daly's restaurant, on North First street, ordered breakfast, and then refused to pay the bill, amounting to 25 cents Then he became abusive to Daly's wife, whereupon he was ordered out. He refused to go and Daly laid violent hands on him He resisted and a tussle ensued, in which a window was broken Daly was technically guilty of assault, and was fined $5, which he paid Telge was fined $10, and having no money, went to jail for five days The poor restaurateur is out the price of one meal, $2 25 for the glass and $5 cash, while Telge gets fifteen meals at the expense of taxpayers

SALE OF THE STRONG PROPERTY —Sheriff Jordan yesterday morning started in to sell the property owned by Judge William Strong, located on the macadam road about three miles south of the city, in order to satisfy a mortgage held by Thomas Whalen. The life estate of the defendant in a tract of land formerly owned by his wife was first offered for sale and purchased by his attorney, Judge Shattuck, for $200. A second tract of about fifteen acres was sold to John P. Walker for $800. At this juncture F. R. Strong offered to settle the balance of the claim and the sale was stopped.

REMAINS TO BE TAKEN EAST —Arrangements had been made for the burial of Mrs. Preston C Smith at River View cemetery to-day, but late yesterday afternoon a telegram was received from her aged mother in Huntsville, Alabama, asking that the body be sent back there for interment. Her people have lived in that beautiful city for generations. The remains will leave by the Atlantic express Wednesday afternoon, and at 10 A M the funeral services of the Episcopal church will be read at the family residence, No 2[illegible]1 Eleventh street, to which all friends are invited

WANTED TO BEAR THEIR BROTHER'S BURDENS —When the seven men convicted of rioting at Astoria came into court a day or two since, six of them said that they wanted the judge to divide the punishment among them and go as light as possible on one of their number, Vecklund, who is a married man and has a family It was a touch of human nature that met a responsive echo in the heart of Judge Taylor, who fined Vicklund $50 or twenty-five days in jail, and the others to six months in the county jail and to pay the costs of the action

STEAMER IN.—The Oregon arrived in Astoria at 6 o'clock last night, and left up at 7 15 She was no doubt detained by headwinds Portland people have become so accustomed to the wonderful regularity of time made by ocean steamers during the last three years, that when it does not arrive on the third day there is a very general inquiry and usually a little alarm. This was the case yesterday, and reporters of THE OREGONIAN were peppered at every step with, "Anything yet from the steamer."

SILK COCOONS —A jar containing a number of cocoons of the silk-worm, was brought to this office yesterday. They were raised by Miss Minnie Applegate of Drain The silk-worms were fed on leaves of the osage orange Some of the cocoons were white others yellow The worms are but little trouble to rear, staying wherever placed and fed, and making interesting pets for those who wish to study their habits

G Pfunder is engaged in moving his residence on Washington street to the corner of Tenth and Stark He will commence construction of a handsome new residence on the site of the old one without delay Fortunately it will not obstruct the view of the beds of pretty flowers which were such a delight to strangers arriving here early in the season from the frozen east.

VOTE OF THANKS TO THE P F D

Councilman Smith offered the following resolution, and it passed unanimously

Resolved, That a hearty vote of thanks be extended to Chief Harry Morgan of the Portland fire department for valuable services rendered at our late fire on I street, also especially remembering T A Jordan, the ex veteran chief, and Charlie Doublebower, with the noble and brave firemen that accompanied them.

THE ENGINEER DISPUTE SETTLED

Bloomer moved the suspension of rule No 15, which requires a motion for reconsideration to be made at the same meeting as the vote to be reconsidered This brought Smith to feet hastily with a demand for an explanation, and Laing explained it was for the purpose of reconsidering the vote by which the recommendation of Frank Payne by the board of delegates for the position of engineer of Pioneer company was rejected but Smith did not know any cause for such an extraordinary motion The motion to suspend the rule was then put and carried, Smith and Gruner voting no

Bloomer now moved the reconsideration of the vote of last meeting whereby the report of the chairman of the committee on fire and water recommending the appointment of Frank Payne as engineer of Pioneer company was rejected. Smith called for the opinion of Chief Engineer Sprague, but Laing protested against that officer interfering in a matter that did not come within the scope of his duties Smith denied this allegation, said the board of delegates were not unanimous in the recommendation of Frank Payne and had preferred no charges against the present incumbent, who he believed should be retained in his position in conformity to the principle of civil service reform as enunciated by President Cleveland

The motion to reconsider was then adopted—Smith and Gruner voting no—and Frank Payne declared to be duly appointed engineer of Pioneer company

Smith then moved that the chief engineer and the committee on fire and water be directed to examine the engine before its being turned over to the newly appointed engineer, so as to avoid any dispute in the future as to its present condition The motion prevailed.

MOTIONS

By Kindorf, that the committee on fire and water be directed to ascertain the probable cost of constructing a fire cistern at the intersection of Fifth and L streets, adopted

By Smith, that the committee on fire and water be directed to procure a coal tender for the fire engine, referred to the committee on fire and water

THE STAGE.

THE CASINO —"The Pirates of Penzance" was produced last evening Before speaking of the representation, a few words on the subject of the Casino performances generally may not be amiss. This place of amusement, when run on certain clearly definable lines, is essentially what is needed in this town The house and its doings have become household words, and if the Casino should cease to hold the position it has hitherto done, it shall not be for want of a word in season The performances of late have left nothing to be desired in the matter of musical excellence They have been given with attention to detail on this and general stage business For some reason, however, there have crept in several errors which, if not eradicated with a strong hand, will do the management irreparable mischief In short, an element of semi-hoodlumism, which has characterized more than one performance since the new season opened, notably that of the Mascot, must be eliminated The public does not want it, and Mr Gross' most desirable clientele won't go and see it. Miss Lester has doubtless by this time learned this fact; she is too good an artist to need more than a hint. The comedians must be taught how to draw the line between comedy and boisterous buffoonery in comic opera work. Mr Gates never descends to any tricks of the kind but he seriously impairs the effect of every part in which he now appears by his indifference If he is portraying the lover let us see some evidence of it in something besides the statement on the play bills. It is inartistic to allow a lady to act up to him and show stolid indifference from reasons of private or perchance family pique. The Casino is the people's and the people are just critics and this is the people's criticism.

The "Pirates" is refreshingly free from any of the above strictures except the last. The libretto is from the witty pen of Gilbert, and in all justice be it stated, the dialogue is given with faithful adherence to the text. The opera stands out in pleasant and wholesome contrast with that just taken off, and the audience left last night highly amused and wholly satisfied. Miss Lester makes a charming little Mabel, and no way overplaying the part and singing all the music perfectly. By request she introduces this week an aria from Sonnambula, which she sings magnificently, and, even if it be a little malapropos to the situation, it is a great treat. Mr Gates plays Frederick. His singing has not been open to comment since he has been with us Of the role he can, in point of acting and general interest, make more. He knows thoroughly his own business and that of every one on the stage. Stevens plays the Major General with comic dignity and quiet humor Blair, as sergeant of police, and his posse of "peelers," came in for the lion's share of the applause Of course, topical songs are introduced, and, of course, they take immensely By the way, the habit of dealing unscrupulously with the names of private individuals is becoming too pronounced It may be sport for the boys, but gives annoyance and even pain where not intended. Mr Wilkinson does very well with the part of the pirate chief and sings the famous solo capitally "The Pirates will draw," was in everybody's mouth as the audience left for home last night, one hour earlier than usual

A QUESTION ABOUT
Brown's Iron Bitters
ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE® NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY, June 1.

Weather fair to cloudy and cool, with high barometer. The calendar week opens with an active trade in grocery lines and a good seasonable produce movement. May witnessed a satisfactory trade in this direction and June is expected to show some increase. Grain values are lower and there is less selling. Fruits are attracting considerable attention but low prices rule. Grain [illegible] for June will be rather above the average as two vessels loaded last month are to clear final, [illegible] that these there are four in loading berth that will most probably get away in the month taking some salmon. A fifth vessel is up for salmon and one of the four will probably take considerable. They may run into July. Another is understood to be about due for salmon loading. The disengaged fleet consists of four iron and one wood with no early additions looked for. There is no demand for grain loading next season. November iron is said to be obtainable at 47s 6d for orders. This is a low rate, but there is no disposition to speculate just now. Expected short crops in California have a depressing influence upon grain freight futures. The Oregon crop seems assured and is to be a very heavy one with continued favorable weather and more than the usual quantity of tonnage will be needed.

During May four vessels, registering 4417 tons cleared final with wheat or flour for the United Kingdom. They carried [illegible] ctls wheat valued at $1[illegible] 18, and 23,18[illegible] lbs flour valued at $101,000, a total valuation of $220,[illegible]18. The vessels were the British Beemah, Jane Sprott and Edward [illegible], and Tillie E. Starbuck, American. The [illegible] carried flour and wheat and the Jane Sprott flour, the other two carrying wheat. Gibson, Church & Co., G. Caesar & Co., Balfour, Guthrie & Co., and the Capital Mills each cleared a cargo. The San Luis with wheat and the Allahabad with flour are both full but have not yet cleared final. For the same month last year two vessels cleared with 60,316 ctls wheat, valued at $95,420.

Minneapolis dates of May 27 say: Wheat has been up and down the past week, losing at the lowest point touched since the European war scare began. The bears are in the majority on change and some of them are free with predictions of a 10c decline in wheat during the coming fortnight. They talk fluently about the splendid crop [illegible] and fine condition of the growing crop in the Minneapolis belt and make no allowances for weather or insect contingencies. The strongest bull argument heard here lately is that of a veteran head miller who has spent twelve or fifteen years in this section and who says that he has never seen a good crop after an early, warm spring but that the best wheat and the largest crops have always been raised in this section when the season was shortest.

Overland receipts include 65 cs baking powder, 110 cs extract, 40 cs sugar, lemon, 400 cs [illegible], [illegible] cs hams, 200 cs turpentine, 50 bbls lard, oil.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Since last report [illegible] ctls wheat, 2,715 bbls flour, 152 ctls oats, 911 ctls barley, 184 ctls bran, 908 ctls millstuff, 11 sks potatoes, 22,[illegible] lbs wool, [illegible] lbs hides, 1[illegible]5 cs eggs, 20,000 lbs hops, 38 bxs fruit, 50 pkgs butter. Also 6,932 ctls wheat, 350 bbls flour, [illegible] ctls oats, 562 ctls barley, 368,[illegible] lbs wool, 5,[illegible] lbs hides from the eastern section.

Receipts of principal produce articles for the month of May by leading transportation routes were:—

EXPORTS—Per str State of California to San Francisco: 1631 ctls wheat, 1120 hf sks flour, [illegible] sks barley, 1032 sks flaxseed, 2676 sks oats, 52 sks potatoes, 349 [illegible] lbs wool, 1 trunk, 6 cs woolens, 4 bls calfskins, 10 bls sheepskins, 94 dry hides, 4 bls deerskins, 9 sks leather, 15 hf 10 bbls salmon, 10 hf do bellies, 1000 bdls lath, 106 tons old railway iron, [illegible] bdls hazel hoops, [illegible] bxs gooseberries, $31,[illegible]01 treasure.

Salmon shipments per State of California were: Scandinavian 250, Badollet 100, Cutting 750, [illegible], West Coast 101, Aberdeen 100, Occident 400; total [illegible] cases.

WHEAT—The cargoes market is inactive, with an easier tendency. Chicago and New York at noon were slightly above opening prices, doubtless because of new crop reports. These markets are confidently expected to show further decline, being now rather above foreign values. Shipments out of New York last week marked a falling off as against the previous week. The local market is unsettled with a light request and this at rather lower figures. The Salem mills are credited with reducing offers to $1 30 although this cannot lead to business as yet. To ship or to grind except for local trade, the mills must buy cheaper. Holders are slow to recognize any decline, still maintaining as a rule, very full views.

FLOUR—No change in values. Receipts free and demand almost wholly local. The northern steamer sails this week.

OATS—Shipments by last steamer show a slight falling off, yet are liberal. The local market rules steady at 36@37½c for best feed.

PROVISIONS—Country cured meats slow and offered for less money. A lot of bacon and ham sold at 9c, and this is the best obtainable figure. City cured is very firmly held. The request is slow. Selling prices are: City cured hams 11@12c, bacon 9@10c, shoulders 6@[illegible]; country cured [illegible] lower, eastern hams 13@15c, bacon [illegible]@10c. Lard quiet and steady; eastern tins [illegible], choice [illegible]; local choice in tins 10½@11c; local in kegs and large tins 9@9c.

FRUITS, ETC—The Oregon's delay causes considerable dullness, California sorts being quite out of stock. Local sorts in free supply; strawberries sold at about 5c; gooseberries are slow and sold as low as 2@3c; cherries are retailing at 5c; few raspberries are in open market at about 8c.

CHICKENS—Demand slow and easily supplied; $3 50@4 being quoted for best old.

EGGS—Asking prices still in excess of demand; receipts include considerable stale. The market cannot be expected to show improvement as long as this continues.

WOOL—Shipments by steamer 350,000 lbs; receipts since Friday noon, 350,814 lbs. The movement is a liberal one but there is only a fair spot business doing. Eastern Oregon values are still 12@16½c, with a fraction better possible for very light. Very little valley has been sold and few lots come up to the quality of eastern.

ASSOCIATED PRESS MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 1.—Governments firm, 3s and 4½s showing the greatest strength. Stocks were more active to-day but the increased business was at the expense of a further decline of quotations for the most active stocks, a portion of which, however, was recovered shortly before 3 o'clock. Considerable weakness was developed in early dealings, the decline being led by Lackawanna. The weakness developed in this stock had a depressing effect upon the whole list except Union Pacific which was well supported for the time. Other Gould stocks were not active, and the losses in quotations were only small. The decline in quotations was aided by an announcement that a further reduction in west bound freight rates [illegible] made this morning amounting to as much as [illegible] per cent. [illegible] prospects of [illegible] tions in iron mills throughout the west and unfavorable rumors as to the outlook of trade, both east and west, was also a help to depress prices.

Renewed weakness was developed after midday in Lackawanna, that stock selling before 1 o'clock at 99¾, a decline from last week of 1¾ per cent. After 1 o'clock however the stock rallied to 101⅛, sold quickly at 100⅞, and then more slowly back to 100⅜ and closed at 101¼ which is ¼ higher than it closed on Friday. It is the only stock on the active list which shows any advance.

There was considerable strength developed in final dealings in Northwest, which rose in the last hour from [illegible] and closed a shade lower with a loss of [illegible] per cent. [illegible] St. Paul is down 1 per cent. Other [illegible] losses are from [illegible] to [illegible] per cent, above the lowest figures reached in the afternoon. Union Pacific was [illegible] and did not sell below [illegible] and closed at the opening [illegible]. [illegible] was dull and heavy. [illegible] day's business consisted [illegible] Lackawanna, St. Paul, Northwestern, Union Pacific and New York Central.

MINING STOCKS

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Mining Record says: Mining stocks [illegible] day. The manipulation [illegible] continued with redoubled zeal and prices were forced up in the neighborhood of $1. [illegible] sold at 16; Bulwer [illegible]; California [illegible]; Virginia [illegible]; Sierra Nevada $1 45; Union Con. [illegible]; Ophir $1 50; Robinson 96; Eureka $5 [illegible]; [illegible] Savage 50.

THE EAST SIDE

ACCIDENT TO REV. J. W. SELLWOOD

Rev John W Sellwood, rector of St. David's church, was driving in his buggy in Portland on Memorial day when his horse became scared at the parade and started to run. The buggy collided with a wagon, causing it to stop but the horse tore out of the traces and went on, taking with him the driver, who retained his hold on the lines. The animal was soon stopped, however, when it was found that Mr Sellwood had received several bruises about the face more or less severe. The horse was slightly scratched and the wheels of the buggy dished. But Mr Sellwood was able to recross the river with the outfit, when he was relieved by friends, who drove him home in another vehicle and had his wounds dressed and took his buggy to a blacksmith shop for repairs.

NOTES

Henry Meyer was allowed $[illegible] on his policy of $600 by the adjusters yesterday, and John Collins received his insurance of $200 in full. The former will reopen in the Logus brick on Fourth street, in a day or two.

The sale of the Fifth street railroad was again postponed yesterday, this time to June 4, at 10 A. M.

Hazlitt the pilgrim struck jail here at 4 o'clock Sunday evening, but was allowed to leave on the first train for The Dalles.

S P Harlan, brother of Lou Harlan, arrived here Sunday from Texas, and is stopping at the Home hotel. The brothers had not seen each other since they separated in Indiana twenty-one years ago. The former is a telegraph operator, and will probably reside here permanently.

The distinguishing feature of [illegible] SALVE is its power to reduce inflammation.

ITEMS FROM THE DALLES

THE DALLES, May 31.

Hon W Lair Hill is in attendance upon the district court at Yakima.

Mr and Mrs W R Abrams entertained a few of their friends Friday evening with a lawn party.

The receipts of wool at the various warehouses during the past week were large and as several buyers from out of town were making purchases, prices had an upward tendency.

News of the death of William E Prior at his old home in Massachusetts was received here Sunday. Mr Prior made this city his home for nearly two years but his failing health compelled him to hasten home.

The weather was very warm during the past week. On Friday the thermometer registered 102 degrees. Crops, however, are in fine condition, and if no more rain falls until after harvest Wasco county will be sure of producing the best grain crop in many years.

Several horse buyers were in town last week but few sales were made here. J W Chapman of Wyoming who came to purchase a large band to drive to his range in that territory, went from here to Prineville and Harney valley, but expected to return to this county before making purchases.

A large number of tramps have been in the city for a week past—most of them discharged laborers from the Yakima branch of the Northern Pacific railroad. They were requested by the city marshal to move on or be locked up and most of them preferred to move. This place was also visited by the bunko dudes described in THE OREGONIAN but their business here was not rushing and they sought a more favorable field of labor.

COMMENCEMENT NOTES

FOREST GROVE, June 1.

The annual meeting of the trustees of Pacific university will be held to-morrow evening.

The baccalaureate sermon preached yesterday by President Ellis was listened to by a large audience, numbers being present from Hillsboro and the surrounding country. The sermon was so well received, and as the manuscript has been asked for publication, comment is withheld. It will bear reading by young people about seven times a week.

The University sermon was preached before a very full audience by Rev J Q A Henry. His theme was the province of thought in reference to religion, in the elaboration of which he showed the impassable limitations of thought, the true realm of reason, and how to think. The sermon abounded in telling points and great truths, and will be long remembered by many who heard it.

On Saturday evening May 30 a crowded audience in the Congregational church greeted Miss Christina McConnell, who was present to give the address before the Philomathean society. The young ladies of this society are to be congratulated upon the happy manner in which they discharged the courtesies of the occasion upon the keen, thoughtful and healthful address and upon the large and appreciative audience. Of the address a reporter's abstract can give no just idea. Its central purpose was to enforce the fact of law in the moral world. To say that it was interesting is small praise. It was delightful and inspiring. The general complaint was that it came to an end too soon.

FOREST GROVE NOTES

FOREST GROVE, June 1.

Miss Hodgdon, of your city, will spend most of the summer in Forest Grove. She is the guest of Mrs Dr Marsh.

Prest. Ellis will deliver the address before the State University, at Eugene, June 16th. Subject, "Education and Ethics."

The pupils of the public school gave an exhibition at Vert's hall on Friday evening. The hall was crowded and the performance a pleasing one.

Prest. Ellis announced this morning to the students of Pacific University, that as all examinations were concluded, they could consider themselves at liberty. The thought of a good long rest caused a pleasant smile to illuminate many a face.

Memorial Day was very properly observed by members of the James B. Matthews Post, G. A. R. The Forest Grove band volunteered some excellent music and led the procession to the cemetery, where the usual impressive ceremonies took place. The University cadets took part in the exercises and from them the sleeping soldiers received a salute of three volleys fired over the grave of James B. Matthews.

SPIRITUALIST CAMP-MEETING.

CLACKAMAS, May 30.

A Spiritualist camp meeting will be held at New Era, Clackamas county, Oregon, beginning Thursday, June 18, and holding five days. Good speakers and good test mediums will be in attendance. Surface Indications

What a man would properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sties, Sores, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effete matter accumulated during the winter months, now [illegible] consequence of the [illegible] Nature's [illegible] to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is apt to filter into the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, languor, and weariness—often looked upon as only spring fever. These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medicine, and nothing else is so effective as

which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the taint of Hereditary Scrofula.

The medical profession indorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-State Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."
